

01/09/2016

Going on now in Stockholm, World Water Week in Stockholm is the annual focal point for the globe's water issues. Almost 3500 scientists and water specialists are gathered in Stockholm 28 August – 2 September. IWMI scientists will be involved in 15 different events, two new initiatives will be launched and two upcoming IWMI/Routledge publications on water basins highlighted.

Read all about IWMI's involvement here: www.iwmi.org/wwweek2016

To follow the event on social media: #WWWeek

This news item is part of a Partner Spotlight! Each week, the GFAR Secretariat is turning the spotlight on the work and collective actions of Partners in GFAR who share in our mission to strengthen and transform agri-food research and innovation systems globally. For the week of 29 August - 2 September, we are celebrating our partner: International Water Management Institute (IWMI).

For more information on the Partners in GFAR, and to become a Partner, click here!